Honoured Sir,

I, Hanumakka, wife of late Balappa, peon, Sub-Registrar's Office, Kudligi, humbly beg to represent the following:-

in, My husband Balappa joined your department on 26/11/1904 and served for 32 years without any default till 4/1/37 and obtained four days casual leave and died on 8/1/37 even before the expiry of the said leave. I have five daughters and a son. My husband after his entertainment in your department acquired a vacant site worth Rs. 40/- in Kudligi and a small terraced house worth Rs. 100/- in Hospet. You saw the condition of my husband when you camped at Kudligi. You know that he was an old and lame man. Apart from this, he acquired neither lands nor any other property which would fetch any income. I am a widow and have no other help. I therefore find it very difficult now to make both ends meet. I am a very poor woman. Considering the poor status of myself and my children, I pray your honour will be pleased to protect me and my children by granting us a pension or compassionate Gratuity till my minor boy, becomes a major.

Thanking you in anticipation.

I beg to remain,

Kudligi.

2. After the death of the peon his widow
Hanumakka has applied for a compassionate gratuity saying that she has no means of livelihood. The statements of village officers of Audligi and Hospet are herewith submitted. The widow states that she has nobody to look after her and her children. The widow has to maintain a big family consisting of three minor daughters and a minor son. This is a very pitiable case and deserves the kind consideration of the Inspector-General.

All the connected records with their translations are herewith submitted.

STATEMENT OF Hanumakka wife of Balappa, late peon Sub Registrar's Office, Kudligi:-

My husband Balappa died on 8/1/37; My husband had no moveable or immovable property except a house in Hospet. It is worth Rs. 100/- one hundred Rupees approximately. He had a vacant site in Kudligi. He had no other property. I have neither gold or nor silver in my house. As we had to maintain a big family, my husband's pay was barely sufficient to meet the demand; So, he could not purchase either gold or silver. My husband had neither relations nor brothers. I have brothers. They have no employment and they are living by daily wages. For the present I have to maintain three daughters and a boy. I have two elderly daughters and they are living with their husbands. I have none to protect me and my children. I have therefore submitted a petition to the Government requesting the Government to sanction a Compassionate Gratuity.

As there is none to protect us till my boy attains majority I pray that the Government be pleased to grant us Compassionate Gratuity, considering the ^{long} good service rendered by my late husband.

My statement is read over to me and it is correct. In case you are pleased to sanction the grant, it may kindly be ordered to be paid at Kudligi Sub Treasury. My husband did not insure his life.

Of these 1, 2, 3 Lakshmakka, ~~Gangamma~~ Gowamma and Gangamma respectively are married and are living with their husbands. The remaining three children are under the protection of their mother, Hanumakka.

Balappa lived in a rented house throughout his life. Balappa had purchased a small plot to erect a shed. Its value after all will not cost more than Rs. 25 or Rs. 30. Hanumakka the wife of the said Balappa has no valuable moveable property either in silver or gold. All that she has are nothing but mud vessels. Balappa was neither a creditor nor a debtor.

The elder and the younger brothers of Hanumakka are living in Bommanahalli. They live on daily wages. As such, they are not in a position to maintain Hanumakka and her children.

Balappa had fever for 15 days just before his death. As the fever did not subside, he became very weak and died. Hanumakka the wife of Balappa is receiving all her letters through Kondappa, Post peon, Kudligi.

My husband Balappa had fever continuously for 15 days. Fever did not cease and so he died. Through him I have five daughters and a son; in all six children. Of these, three daughters (1) Lakshmakka aged 20, 2. Gowamma aged 18, Gangamma aged 15, are married and are living with their husbands. The remaining three (1) Yellamma aged 10, (2) Tharamma aged 6, (3) Manumantha aged 3; are minors and are living with me. I have no movable property. As such, I find it very difficult to live.

The open space belonging to my husband is worth about Rs. 25/-. My husband had no debts. My brothers, one younger and the other elder are in Bommanahalli and are living on daily wages. They are not in a position to maintain me and my children. I receive letters through Kondappa, Post peon, Kudligi.

My statement is read over to me and it is correct.
